Summer Hop is a learning experience that combines academic instruction with fun hands-on enrichment activities and projects. Our curriculum includes STEM, creative arts, Bible and physical activities. Summer Hop is open to all kids ages 5-10. Children do not have to be a DCS student to attend. Kids will need to bring snacks, a sack lunch, and drink daily.

Summer Hop clothing should be modest and appropriate.

$125/week
$450 for all 4 weeks
Registration fee: $15 ($25 after May 10)
$25 max for family ($35 after May 10)
8:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
Ages 5-10

June 3-7: Brick by Brick

We will be using Legos to create, invent and discover. We will be building different models, exploring some engineering and design concepts and playing some Lego games.

June 10-14: Camp Create

Kids will get the chance to get messy and create some unique art. We will explore different art techniques, learn about a variety of artists and expand our creativity.

June 17-21: Passport to the World

Grab your passport and get ready to explore the world! Children will navigate their way through different traditions, games and cultures from countries around the world.

June 24-28: At the Movies

We will be ending our summer program with some Disney movie fun! Not only will we be watching the movies, we will have crafts and other activities related to our movie.

Please fill out and return with registration fee.
